

PROPOSALS FOR ACTION AIMED TO IMPROVE THE MANAGEMENT PLANNING OF EUROPEAN FUNDS

Cristina VOICU-OLTEANU ¹,
Ion STEGĂROIU², Ramona LILE³, Silviu SUPLECAN⁴

Abstract. One of the key principles of cohesion policy is relating to the co financing, namely to ensure the beneficiaries own contribution, in addition to Community assistance grants. Financial support of the beneficiary, quantified as own contribution in the implementation of the project lies in the congregation by applying the fixed costs arising established for co-financing rate of eligible costs and expenses ineligible.

Keywords: contribution, beneficiary, eligible

¹Phd., Student, Valahia University of Targoviste, Romania, voltercristina@yahoo.com

²Prof., Phd, Associate Member of the Academy of Romanian Scientists, Valahia University of Targoviste, Romania, stegarioiuion@yahoo.com

³Phd., Student, Valahia University of Targoviste, Romania

⁴Phd., Student, Valahia University of Targoviste, Romania